FIRE INSURANCE NOTICES, &c. SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY,

ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium n cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount ne would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies rgainst loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having exaudria at 1.30, P. M. Through tickets by this increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such less happened, to be mutually

MISCELLANEOUS READING. VIRGINIA-THE PRESENT CRISIS. In dissolving her relations with other States, she seeks war with no one-her de-The President being absent, Mr. Cazenove was sire is only for peace and to be permitted to pursue her own happiness in her own way.

But she stands prepared to peril life, fortune, and honor in resisting aggression, and upholding the freedom, which Washington won for her. But we must not close our eyes to the dangers that surround us. We would have every man in the State to appreciate the full extent and magnitude of the peril. Let him consider that the whole North is banded against us-that an army of 200,000 men is ready to be let loose, to invade and enslave us;-that our enemies have control of the ocean-that they have vast advantages in the abundance and superiority of their arms -and that they are animated a diabolical hate, which bars all quarter. And then let him bear in mind, and take heart from the reflection, that all these formidable advantages can only be overcome by a firm, determined, | brave, free and united people .-interest of the city in the Annual Meeting of the There must be an instant and universal uprising of the whole population of the State. Our common safety, every man's safety depends upon it. Our freedom -our existence as a people is at stake. Instant, vigorous Council to the Committee on Claims, was received, and united action can alone save us. While the people are engaged preparing for the conflict, let the Convention issue an address to all the sons of Virginia to rally to her rescue in this her supreme hour, And let the Convention add the sanction of its authority, to those of her sons in any official capacity, that, in these times of disentegration on the one side and ausrpation and consolidation on the other, the first and foremost duty of each and all is to their native State. Rich Whig.

No WAR!-The Charleston Mercury expresses the conviction, that their will be no war after all:-not that the bruta! Party in ascendancy at the North would not gladly lay waste the South, but that is a task of difficulty and peril and won't pay. They see new that they will have to fight the whole South, and subdue every man and keep him subdued:-and no holiday campaign will suffice for that. We observe that the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, entertains a somewhat similar opinion. THE REMAINS OF NAPOLEON I-THEIR TRANSFER TO THE INVALIDES .- The Paris correspondent of the London Times writes, under date of April 3: "The remains of the Emperor Napoleon I. were transferred, at two o'clock yesterday, from the Chapel of St. Jerome, in the Church of the Invalides, where they had rested for the last twenty years, to the tomb placed under the dome. "This solemn ceremony was performed in presence of the Emperor, the Empress, Prince Napoleon, the Princess Lucien and Joachim Murat, and the other members of the Imperial family, the officers of the Imperial household, the Ministers, the members of the Privy Council, the Marshals, Admirals, the Governor of the Invalides and his entire staff."
